

Jeff Christenson is a Senior Consultant in the Total Compensation and Rewards practice of Integrated Healthcare Strategies, a division of Gallagher Benefit Services, Inc., specializing in executive total compensation.

He is responsible for managing total compensation projects, including developing salary structures, assessing the reasonableness and competitiveness of executive compensation, and designing incentive plans. He also prepares clients for media inquiries regarding executive compensation and governance.

Mr. Christenson has advised a variety of health care organizations, from small rural hospitals to large multi-state health systems, on all aspects of executive compensation. Organizations he has advised include Lahey Clinic, Sutter Health, and NorthShore University HealthSystem.

Mr. Christenson is an attorney licensed to practice law in Minnesota. Before joining Gallagher Integrated, he provided research assistance to a wide variety of clients as a Reference Staff Attorney with Thomson West. He received his J.D. from William Mitchell College of Law and his B.A. in Psychology from the University of Minnesota.
